

World Regional Geography
GEOG 15000-01L
Summer I 2018 (8 weeks)

Welcome to the online version of World Regional Geography. This summer you will be exploring the world's cultural regions through online exercises, websites, online videos, and online writing. This course is entirely online so will be important for you to build yourself a schedule for completing your work each week. By the end of this course, you should be familiar with aspects of the physical, cultural, economic, urban, and population geographies of the world's regions.

Video Assignments:

There is no textbook for this course. Most of your grade will be based on essays on each world region. I have posted a number of videos and websites for each world region. I expect you to watch the videos, complete the exercises on the websites, and show evidence of it in your essays and project (one region's writing assignment is not an essay). There is a rubric posted for your essays and the project. I strongly encourage you to use the rubric to guide your preparation. Timeliness is also built into the rubric. I do deduct points for late work without a legitimate documentable reason such as a medical emergency or a death in the family. Assignments submitted early are not a problem. The final exam will be based on information on the videos, so I strongly encourage you to take notes as you watch them and review the notes before taking the final. The final is constructed response paragraph questions.

Learning Outcomes:

- Students will be able to critically think and critically write about key themes in regions across the globe
- Students will be able to discuss the relationship between the physical and human geographies of the world's major regions
- Students will be able to identify patterns of migrations by examining the origins and diffusion patterns of cultural traits such as language, religion, foods, and forms of dress.

Grading:

Each essay is worth 12.5%. Your final exam is also worth 12.5% of your grade. Folders will be due on Wednesdays at 10 pm. I will do my best to give you feedback by Saturday. You will have until the following Wednesday to submit a revised version of that week's essay in response to my feedback for an improved grade if you receive less than 100% on the assignment. Each assignment is programmed for up to 2 submissions. If a third is necessary for technical reasons, we will deal with it on a case-by-case basis. In order to qualify to revise and resubmit for an improved grade, the initial submission must be submitted on time. Some of the folders include map games. Successful completion of each map game by the folder due date will earn 5 extra credit points for that folder's assignment. To receive credit, upload a screenshot of your game results with your essay.

Due Dates for Folders:

June 5: Folder 1: US and Canada

June 12: Folder 2: Latin America and the Caribbean

June 19: Folder 3: Africa and Southwest Asia

June 26: Folder 4: Europe and Russian Domain

July 3: Folder 5: Central Asia and East Asia

July 10: Folder 6: South Asia and Southeast Asia (an extra day due to the July 4th holiday)

July 17: Folder 7: Australia and Oceania

All essays must be uploaded in the appropriate dialog box in that week's assignment folder. All assignments will be checked by SafeAssign for plagiarism. To access the assignments folders, open "Assignments", then that week's folder, then click on the assignment title to open the dialog box and see the rubric. Assignments submitted in any other manner, including email, will not be graded.
