Goals/objective and expected learning outcomes:

The main goal and objective of this class is to study and understand the new approaches of development in the developing countries. It aims at learning the new bottom-up approaches of sustainable development as oppose to the old top-down approaches. By the end of this course, you should have a better understanding of the complex and dynamic interrelations between sustainable development in the developing countries with much emphasis on policies, strategies, available resources, and progress and sustainability of development in regions that suffer from physical and socio-economic challenges.

Expected Learning Outcomes:

- A general and broad knowledge of the major issues of sustainable development in the developing countries.
- Understand that sustainable development as a holistic approach that links the process of environmental, economic and social change together now and in the future.
- Knowledge of some of the key geographic, development, environmental and social justice issues facing our world today.
- Ability to think and write critically about these issues.

Grading system:

Mid-term examination	40%
Final examination	40%
Research paper	20%

Mid-term Exam:

The midterm exam is a take-home examination consisting of four short essay questions. You need to support your writing with examples from peer-reviewed articles.

Final Exam:

The final examination is a take-home exam consisting of four short essay questions. These essays should be supported with examples from peer-reviewed articles.

Please note the following guidelines for your term paper:

1. Choose any topic from the topics listed in the lecture schedule.
2. The professor must approve your topic.
3. The paper must be double-spaced, one inch margins on all sides, 12 point font, and at least 14 pages long plus bibliography.
4. It should include a minimum of ten (10) cited references from books and peer-reviewed articles. Wikipedia is not an acceptable source.
5. The paper should include tables, maps or graphs (notate the source).
6. In case of citation of references in the text, use APA format (parentheses) and NOT the MLA format (You will be given printout examples in the class).
7. There should be a cover page showing the title, your name, course number, instructor's name and the semester (i.e. Fall 2017).
8. Sub-headings should be used in the paper along an introduction and a conclusion.
9. The bibliography should be written properly at the end of the paper.
10. The deadline for submission of the paper is November 20, 2017.
11. If you have any question(s) come and see me.
12. Not following of any of these points will reduce your grade.

Attendance and Grading Policies:

1. There is a direct correlation between good grades and good attendance. Come to the class prepared, read the appropriate articles of the reading list, take notes, study for your exams and you will be successful. Attendance is taken at every class meeting.
2. I do not give incompletes (IN) except under the most extraordinary, and documented, circumstances.
3. The only students who will be eligible for CR/NC at the end of the semester are those who have completed all of the course requirements including all exams and the term paper. CR/NC slips must be submitted no later than 15 minutes prior to the start of the final exam.

4. If miss an exam, you must (1) contact me within 48 hours of the missed exam, (2) present acceptable documentary evidence for your absence, and (3) arrange a make-up exam at a mutually convenient date and time. A make-up exam covers the same materials as the regular exam but will not be the same exam given as scheduled.
5. If you fail to take the final exam, you have the same 48 hours in which to contact me about a make-up exam and provide me with the appropriate documentation supporting your absence. If I do not hear from you within that time period, I will award you an exam grade of zero (0), and average that zero into your semester grade.

Please ... do not hesitate to come and see me if you have any questions.

HUNTER COLLEGE STATEMENT ON ACADEMIC HONESTY:

Hunter College regards acts of academic dishonesty (e.g., plagiarism, cheating on examinations, obtaining unfair advantage, and falsification of records and official documents) as serious offenses against the values of intellectual honesty. The College is committed to enforcing the CUNY Policy on Academic Integrity and will pursue cases of academic dishonesty according to the Hunter College Academic Integrity Procedures.

And I might add that creative originality and integrity are essential if you want to develop the kind of knowledge that is going to do you any good in life. When you cheat at school, the one you are really cheating is ultimately your future self.

ADA Policy

In compliance with the American Disability Act of 1990 (ADA) and with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Hunter College is committed to ensuring educational parity and accommodations for all students with documented disabilities and/or medical conditions. It is recommended that all students with documented disabilities (Emotional, Medical, Physical, and/or Learning) consult the Office of ACCESSABILITY, located in Room E1214B, to secure necessary academic accommodations. For further information and assistance, please call: (212) 772- 4857 or (212) 650-3230.
